

CHOOSING THE GOLF CLUB THAT BEST SUITS MY NEEDS

At Spring Valley we invite you to:

- Contact the General Manager, Robert Sim and arrange for a complimentary round and tour of the facilities.
- Visit the club and get a feel for the environment.
- Experience the friendly and efficient service provided by the staff.
- Ask any questions that you may have pertaining to the club and what it offers.

What you should consider when considering joining a golf club:

- The condition and design of the golf course. Does it provide the essential challenge and playability that golfers of all levels will enjoy.
- The practice facilities.
- The quality of the clubhouse.
- The standard and hours of trading of the food and beverage service.
- The range and price of apparel and golf equipment available for purchase.
- The expertise of the professional coaching service.
- The cost of membership compared to the standard of the course and clubhouse facilities.
- The arrangements the club offers for the payment of the annual subscriptions and the entrance fee.
- Travelling time to and from the club from home and or business.
- The playing rights offered.
- Is there a waiting list to join?
- The course availability and ability for members to readily book games.
- The number of days that the course is closed for corporate bookings.
- The culture of the membership.

SPRING VALLEY GOLF CLUB THE HIDDEN JEWEL OF THE SANDBELT!

The term "Hidden Jewel" was first used by renowned golf course critic, Tom Ramsay to describe the Spring Valley Golf Course.

That statement brilliantly captured the fact that existing in the famed Sandbelt region of Melbourne, together with the more famous courses such as Royal Melbourne, Kingston Heath and Metropolitan, is a private golf club membership that enjoys the pleasure of playing on a course borne out of the same terrain.

Founded in 1948 the club has quietly gone about its business by providing the members with ever improving facilities. The golf course is home to a huge variety of bird life and its immaculate greens and fairways and signature bunkering contribute to Spring Valleys rating in the top ten courses in Victoria.

Situated just 30 minutes from Melbourne, Spring Valley is a golf course that every golfer would want to play.
