

CHOOSING THE GOLF CLUB THAT BEST SUITS MY NEEDS

At Spring Valley we invite you to:

- Contact the General Manager, Robert Sim and arrange for a complimentary round and tour of the facilities.
- Visit the club and get a feel for the environment.
- Experience the friendly and efficient service provided by the staff.
- Ask any questions that you may have pertaining to the club and what it offers.

What you should consider when considering joining a golf club:

- The condition and design of the golf course. Does it provide the essential challenge and playability that golfers of all levels will enjoy.
- The practice facilities.
- The quality of the clubhouse.
- The standard and hours of trading of the food and beverage service.
- The range and price of apparel and golf equipment available for purchase.
- The expertise of the professional coaching service.
- The cost of membership compared to the standard of the course and clubhouse facilities.
- The arrangements the club offers for the payment of the annual subscriptions and the entrance fee.
- Travelling time to and from the club from home and or business.
- The playing rights offered.
- Is there a waiting list to join?
- The course availability and ability for members to readily book games.
- The number of days that the course is closed for corporate bookings.
- The culture of the membership.
